ROME, ITALY CLE SEPT 25-27 2017

NIABA Members throughout the USA and Italy are invited to attend a CLE program in Rome, Italy, on Monday-Wednesday, September 25-27, 2017. The program will feature two 2-hour lectures in English each day -- one from 10 a.m. to noon and the second from 4 to 6 p.m. Each lecturer will be an attorney practicing in Italy who will provide an outline in advance to qualify the lecture for CLE credits if desired.

The following topics were selected to appeal to U.S. attorneys who have clients needing legal assistance in Italy:

1. Tax structures and loopholes in Italy.
2. Family law issues between Italy and the U.S. – case studies.
3. Emerging opportunities for lawyers.
4. Dual citizenship for Italian Americans.
5. How to navigate the Italian court system in litigation.
6. Italian heritage and Italian inheritance. How to deal with Italian probate proceeding.

The lectures will be held in the congress hall of a 4-star hotel. Following each afternoon session there will be a cash bar “meet and greet” for participants and companions. The contacts you make should be invaluable. The room price of the hotel will include breakfast for guests. Several programs and tours will be proposed to the participants who want to attend.

Terms of participation:

- 2017 NIABA dues must be paid in full
- Payment of the $300 registration fee must be made to NIABA before June 1, 2017
- Hotel reservations should be made with the venue directly
- Airfare should be booked separately
